Rabbi’s Message

At the recent Bar Mitzvah of Brandon Snyder (who did a wonderful job, I might add), I quoted a verse from Pirke Avot: “Turn it, turn it, everything is in it.” The “it” of the verse is referring to Torah. Brandon read from Bereishit, the first portion in the Torah, and to get there we (read: Sid) literally had to turn the Torah scroll to wind it back to the beginning. However, the Rabbi’s of Pirke Avot are referring to more than just the physical maneuvering of the Torah scroll, but more precisely, to the study of Torah. No matter how many times we study the same material there are always new things that can be gleaned from it. Thousands of years of Torah commentary attest to that.

The most important thing I say to the B’nai Mitzvah class every year is that it is my understanding that Hebrew School is only the beginning of their Jewish study. It is my hope that they use their experience in Bordentown as a springboard to future study. This could occur in High School, in College, Graduate School, or, better yet, as an adult. As Jews we are encouraged to be lifelong learners.

This year we have an ambitious Adult Education program. Rick Shain, our Adult Education Chair, and I have devised a multi-pronged approach to include as many people as possible. This will mean that myself, Rick and Rabbi Julie will be leading classes over the course of the year. To take advantage of the Hebrew school crowd and to really demonstrate our capability to have multi-generational learning, we’ve decided to hold classes on Sunday mornings from 11:15 to 12:30. To help entice people to come we will be serving Bagels/Cream Cheese and other goodies from Mastori’s.

Mark your calendars our first class will be held on Sunday, November 18th. Using my new chaplaincy training, I will be teaching a class entitled: Shema: The Jewish Perspective on Listening. Using prayer, Jewish wisdom, and basic common sense, we will explore how to really listen to each other to the fullest. The second class in this series will occur on Sunday, December 2. Please RSVP to shainr30@hotmail.com.

The next series of classes will be taught by Student Rabbi Julie Pfau on Sundays, January 13, February 24, and March 9. Her class will be called: “Finding Your Own Voice in Prayer: An In Depth Look at Jewish Prayer, Learning to Transform Ancient Words and Melodies of Our Prayer Book to our Contemporary Lives.” (Rick will take the third series of classes. Dates and topics still undecided).

However, that’s not all! In addition to the classes, we will also be showing three movies on Saturday nights during the year. The first of those will occur on Saturday, December 1 at 7 PM. We’ll be showing “Le Petit Jerusalem” (See inside for more details).

And, lastly, we are starting our fourth year of the Bordentown Interfaith Dialogue, with a kickoff session on Thursday, November 8th at the The Crosswicks United Methodist Church entitled “A Concert of Prayer” (details inside). (This is in addition to me giving the talk at our Interfaith Thanksgiving service on Wednesday, Nov. 21 at 7:30 at the Presbyterian Church (420 Farnsworth)).

Whew....

I look forward to seeing you at any or all of these events. May we never stop learning until 120.

B’Shalom,
Rabbi Alex

Tot Shabbat

Tot Shabbat met in October to celebrate Shabbat and learn about Noah’s Ark. In addition to our potluck dinner and service, the children heard the story, “Two by Two” by Barbara Reid and created their own Noah’s ark picture using animal stamps and an ark template.
The next Tot Shabbat will be November 2 when we learn about the Jewish calendar, and December 7 when we celebrate Hanukkah. If people have Hanukkah party game or craft ideas, please feel free to contact me with them. New ideas are always welcome!
For more information about Tot Shabbat or to join our pot luck RSVP list call Sharon Dauber 291-9169 or email sdauber@comcast.net.

Membership Drive for 2007-08

As an incentive for our members to find new members to join the temple, the board has approved the following: for every new member referred to the temple, you will receive $100 off of your dues the first year they join. Please have the new member indicate that you referred them to obtain the benefit of this promotion.

We hope and pray for the recovery of our loved ones and friends every Friday night during Sabbath eve worship. If you know someone dear to you, who are in need of our congregation’s prayers, please tell Rabbi Alex or any board member.
SOCIAL ACTION

Collection of granola bars for distribution once a month and food for the food pantry is ongoing throughout the year. Thanks to all who contribute.

Break the Fast –

I would like to sincerely thank the set up and clean up volunteers for making my first “Break-the-Fast” experience such a wonderful one. You all made it possible for everyone to have such an enjoyable evening. Thank you – Rita Nissim, Sheila Lamonsoff, Sherri and Janeane Haines, Robin Affrime, Renee Harrison, Charyl Morginstin, Evelyn Rothman, Robin Zak, Linda Kamer, Elaine Trackman, and Marcia Rosen. My heartfelt gratitude to you all. Karen Nissim

Yom Kippur Community Booklet:

Thank you to everyone who participated in the Yom Kippur community booklet. This little project raised $770 for the Temple. This year we lost a few people and did not get new participants so we actually raised $59 less than last year- we will have to do more next year. Since the beginning of this project in 1992 the Temple has realized about $10,000! That’s a lot of names! Randye Bloom

SARAH SEIDEL SISTERHOOD NEWS

Come to our “Jewelry & Judaica” party on Monday, November 12th. 7PM.

We hope you will enjoy this opportunity to visit with your friends, see a presentation on a large selection of beautiful jewelry, and have the opportunity to order these wonderful pieces for yourself or for holiday gifts. There will also be a terrific selection of Hanukah gift items and gift wrap to purchase. We would like to invite all temple members to join us, even if you are not a member of Sisterhood. On-site gift wrapping will be available for Hanukah items purchased that night!

Book Review on December 10th, lead by Elaine Trackman and Ellen Wehrman.

Back by popular demand, the book review for this year is The Faith Club–A Memoir by Three Young Mothers * A Muslim – Ranya Idliby, A Christian – Suzanne Oliver, and A Jew – Priscella Warner. Their story is a search for understanding and sharing their faiths, how they resolve their differences, and how they recognize their likenesses and cope with passing values onto their children. The book is available in soft cover.

Thank you Shira Lowry for a delightful movie night. This movie, Keeping Up With the Steins, should definitely be seen by pre-Bar/Bas Mitzvah families.

Welcome new member Nancy Belonzi.

Temple B’nai Abraham and Sarah Seidel Sisterhood Embroidered Tablecloth

The Embroidered tablecloth is very delicate and is used on special occasions during the year. Phyllis Chudoff has taken on the task of embroidering names on the cloth.

All Temple and Sisterhood members can add their names to the cloth. Contact Phyllis at 499-3217

To make things easy, you can email Phyllis with the names you wish to have embroidered on the tablecloth. pchudoff@hotmail.com

Donation is $5.00 to the Sisterhood and can be mailed to the temple. Please write in memo Sisterhood.
Knitting-Crafting Group
Thank you ladies who came out for the knitting/craft group on September 24th. We talked, we shared, and we worked on our projects. Join us for our next group meeting on October 22 at 7:30PM at the temple. All are welcome; no fees, no dues, just you and project. Contact Betsy at 298-0437 or Eileen at 291-0220 for information. Please contact Betsy or Eileen for November’s date.

Blood Drive: Please contact Randye Bloom if you are able to offer any assistance with the December blood drive-calling potential donors, hanging posters, donating blood, etc. More information in the December newsletter

The Greater Bordentown Interfaith Thanksgiving service will be at the Presbyterian Church, 420 Farnsworth Avenue at 7:30PM on November 21st. This year Rabbi Alex will be the speaker. Come out and support Rabbi Alex and the Jewish community.

On November 8th, The Greater Bordentown Interfaith Dialogue invites you to an Interfaith “Concert” of Prayer at 7PM at The Crosswicks United Methodist Church. Bring a prayer (preferably written) from your own faith tradition or one that has been personally meaningful to you and share it with others in sincere prayer and respectful dialog. Temple B’nai Abraham is one of the sponsors of the Interfaith Dialogue programs.

The International Jewish Film Festival run by the Rutgers Jewish Studies program will be held Nov. 4-11 at the Regal Cinema in North Brunswick. It is easy to get to on Route 1 and all films have English subtitles. Check out the link: http://jewishstudies.rutgers.edu/events/film07/index.shtml
Marcy Schwartz will be introducing the Brazilian film “The Year My Parents Went on Vacation” on Sunday afternoon Nov. 11.
Here is some info on the film
Brazil, 2006, 35mm, 104 min.
Portuguese with English subtitles
Director: Cao Hamburger
Nominee: Golden Bear, Berlin International Film Festival 2007

This dramatic coming of age tale features twelve-year-old Mauro who is caught between political upheavals in Brazil and the excitement that surrounds Brazil’s competition in the World Cup in summer 1970. Left at the doorstep of his Jewish grandfather when his parents flee, the boy is thrust into the unfamiliar world of Sao Paolo’s Jewish community. The film follows the relationships that develop between Mauro and the community while also portraying life under political dictatorship.
Thursday, November 8 at 6:30 p.m.
Speaker: Professor César Braga-Pinto, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, Rutgers University

Sunday, November 11 at 12:45 p.m. Theater A
Please note that the Sunday films will be shown in two theaters at the Regal. Before ordering tickets, check the film running times to ensure that the times of the films do not conflict.
Speaker: Professor Marcy Schwartz, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, Rutgers University

Send in your pledges today.
We will be celebrating our 90th anniversary on November 17, 2007 at the American Grill, Rt. 130, Hamilton from 6:00-10:30pm. From 6:00-7:00, we will have cocktails (cash bar) and cold hors d'oeuvres. Dinner with a DJ is from 7-10:30. Menu will be soup or salad and a choice of one of three delicious entrees - wild king salmon, fillet mignon, or vegetable medley over pasta. Special cake for dessert. Price will be $75/person. Besides being a wonderful excuse for a party, this will also be a fundraiser for the temple. All temple members and sisterhood members are invited. Feel free to bring a guest. It'll be 10 more years (our 100th) before we have another reason for a big party, so don't lose this opportunity to have fun. Please come out and have a great time.

RSVP by November 7th (with no. of guests and menu selection) to Stan and Ronnie Zeichner. 324-1772. Checks should be made payable to Temple B'nai Abraham and mailed to the Zeichners', 6 Fitzgerald Lane, Columbus, NJ 08022 prior to the event.

Movie Night - “Le Petite Jerusalem” - Saturday, December 1, 7 PM at the synagogue

(Not recommended for children below Bar Mitzvah age)

Writer-director Karin Albou is nothing if not intrepid: in LA PETITE JERUSALEM she grapples with three of life's most loaded and complex issues - faith, family, and sexuality. Set in a drab and aptly named housing project, Little Jerusalem, on the outskirts of Paris, the film focuses on a family of Algerian Orthodox Jewish immigrants. Albou's two main characters, the stunning sisters Laura (Fanny Valette) and Mathilde (Elsa Zylberstein), think about the movie's themes in completely opposite ways. Laura is that classic overly rational cynic--a philosophy student--who, firmly grounded in the realm of the profane, rejects sentimental notions about love and favors an emotionless approach to sex. Her sister, unhappily betrothed and devoutly religious, clings fiercely to the Torah's mandate against female sexual pleasure. Not surprisingly, both women become subsequently unmoored by relationships with different men--Laura finding herself irrationally in love with Djamel, a handsome Algerian, and Mathilde opening herself up to a feminist-fuelled sexual revolution via an extramarital affair.

Using handheld photography, tight framing, lingering close-ups, and moody lighting, Albou crafts a movie that is texturally delicate and aesthetically intimate. The subjects and story are made particularly riveting by Albou's wonderfully chosen cast of magnetic performers. In particular, the exotic Vallette's facial nuances and glassy doe-eyes emit a depth of thought that bespeaks inner turmoil and philosophical doubt. LA PETITE JERUSALEM, though small in budget, is large in resonance and scope--a welcome existential treatise that satisfies the heart and the mind.
