GOBBLE!

The next meeting of the Sarah Seidel Sisterhood will be held on Monday, November 11, at 8:00 P. M., at the synagogue.

The joint meeting of the Temple and the Sisterhood was well attended and the beginning of a closer working relationship between the two groups will hopefully be the result. In working together, more benefits can be accomplished for our synagogue. At this meeting, it was decided that a committee of four men and four women be appointed to study and present their findings and recommendations on various questions regarding the operation, maintenance, etc., of our synagogue. The four representatives from Sisterhood will be Chairperson Sylvia Goldman, Mina Malone, Ida Reichlin and Dorothy Gutstein.

At the October joint meeting, Sylvia Goldman presented a program that was a lot of fun. It required audience participation, and everyone had such a good time, we will be looking forward to more joint meetings and more joint fun.

The program for our meeting on Monday evening will be Miss Veronica Carey. Miss Veronica Carey will regale us with a book review. Miss Carey has been kind enough to visit us each season, for some years now, and we just can't imagine doing without her delightful program. Mina Malone who is responsible for the November program says "Ask the gal who heard her!"

The next Friday night service will be November 15, at 8:15 P.M.

There was an organizational meeting held on October 30 for a high school age Jewish Youth Group; to begin meeting at the synagogue on Wednesday evenings at 6:30 P.M. They will be planning social events and also will plan to join in events with Jewish groups in other communities.

Also, there will be a Jewish Youth Group for Jr. high school students to be organized soon.

There are presently 9 children in the younger age group of Sunday School and 6 in the older group. They are learning customs, songs and the older group is learning Hebrew. Hebrew is being offered at the Synagogue on Sundays starting at 10:45 A.M. and on Wednesdays from 4 to 6 P.M. The younger children begin Sunday school at 9:30 A.M. If you have a child you would like to enter, please contact Jay Trackman at 298-1316. The instructor and youth group director is Daniel Fried of Philadelphia. He is a student at Dropsie University in Philadelphia majoring in Jewish Studies and is the Regional Director of United Synagogue Youth.

There is to be a Donor Art Auction on Sunday, November 17 at the Bonaparte Galleries in Bordentown. The J. C. T. Galleries on Route 206 will be offering original paintings in great variety starting at $10.00. Preview of the paintings will begin at 1:00 P.M. and the auction will begin at 2:00 P.M. Tickets for admission are $1. A door prize will be awarded. Refreshments will be available. This is being sponsored by Dale Edelson, Rhea Goldman, Seena Groveman and Phoebe Nissim. Please come out to support these members in this unusual undertaking -- and do bring friends. This would be a very nice way to entertain friends that are not members of our community. At $1.00 per person you might wish to entertain some of your friends or neighbors. They will surely have a very enjoyable afternoon.

Gift Shop Chairperson, Renee Harrison, announces that she will have wrapping paper, books, Hanukah cards, gelt, dradles, games, candles and other gift items on sale. The November meeting will be the last meeting before Hanukah. Our December meeting will be held during Hanukah.

Joy and Sorrow Chairperson, Ida Reichlin, reminds us that our new cheery get-well cards, designed and printed through the talented efforts of Marsha Dowshen (Thank You, Marsha), are now available for your use. Cards for happy occasions and sympathy cards are also available. Please call Ida (298 - 1142) and she will be glad to mail a card, or a number of cards, in your name.
