

NEWSLETTER

SARAH SEIDEL SISTERHOOD

October, 1981

L'Shanah Tovah-Happy New Year!

The month of Tishri on the Hebrew calender brings forth the most holy and joyous of the Jewish holidays: Rosh Hashonah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot, and Simchas Torah. May your family celebrate this new year, 5742, with continued health, happiness and prosperity.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Bordentown Historical Society will hold its walking tour this Sunday, Oct. 11, beginning at 1:00 P.M. We are all very proud to, once again, have our synagogue among the many stops.

Keep Sunday, November 1, open as the J.C.C. is planning a delightful program with Dr. Albert T. Nissman. Join us at Temple B'Nai Abraham at 1:30 P.M. to hear an exciting presentation "Journey through Jewish humor: One Man's Trip".

The Ways and Means committees of both the sisterhood and the synagogue have decided to combine their talents and recreate another delicious Spaghetti Dinner to be held on Sunday, November 8 at 5:30 P.M. Reservations for two will be $15.00, individual reservations at $7.50. Space is limited so please call in your reservations to Candy Singer at 298-9684 as soon as possible.

A bond was presented to Margaret Casey on June 5 as a gift from the Sarah Seidel Sisterhood.

THANK YOU! TODAH

Thank you Charyl & Sid Morginstin for having your father, Cantor Morginstin, add much strength and beauty to our high holiday services. His rich and beautiful voice was a very positive note for all to hear and enjoy.

Thank you Joanne Lutz, Leah Smulian and Trudie Urken for the lovely floral arrangements within the synagogue over the holidays.

Thank you Ida Reichlin, Candy & Jon Singer and chefs Norm & Sylvia Goldman and Shirley Sender for another lovely J.C.C. picnic at Liberty Lake. The weather was perfect, the food delicious and the company very enjoyable.

We gratefully acknowledge contributions made to our Memorial Fund by the following:

Dr. & Mrs. Walter Harrison in memory of Anna Harrison.

Dr. & Mrs. Nathan Smulian in memory of Ada Zabinsky.

Mr. & Mrs. Norman Goldman in memory of Zelda Jenny Goldman.

WELCOME!

A hearty welcome to the following new sisterhood members as well as a welcome back to Rose King. Please add these listings to your current sisterhood list.

Edelman, Ty, 272 Ward Ave. Apt. 6F Bordentown 298-0036
Hirschel, Maxine 272 Ward Ave. Apt. 6P Bordentown 298-6317
King, Rose (Raymond) 10 Shady Lane, Bordentown 298-6455
Leibowitz, Marlene (Irv) 6 West Pt. Dr. Bordentown 298-6174
Sorry for the omission, Marlene!

CONGRATULATIONS!

A new little boy with a big name to live up to "Alexander" has been born on Rosh Hashonah to Andrew & Rhona Smulian, son and daughter-in-law of Nathan and Leah Smulian.

Congratulations to Genna Singer on placing first at the Bordentown Baby Parade in the infant to 2½ years category.

The Sarah Seidel Sisterhood will meet on Monday, Oct. 12, at 8:00 P.M. There will be no board meeting preceeding this meeting nor business discussed as the holiday of Sukkot begins at sundown. Celebration of the holiday as well as a program by Sylvia Goldman, aptly titled "The Member Who Boomeranged", will be the events of the evening. Sylvia's program will be a presentation of her experiences and impressions during a trip to New Zealand and Sydney, Australia. Sylvia doesn't expect to win a Hollywood "Oscar" for the slides but she may win one as the "Best humorist of the year". Come one, come all to enjoy her talk. It won't be shown again on another channel. You will learn a lot of interesting things about New Zealand and Australia that you never knew before! Added attractions-quiz and prize!!

REMINDERS:

If you will be serving a luncheon meal to the rabbi as part of the hostess program please do write to him well in advance. A brief note is all that is necessary.

All candle lighting times are listed as part of the front cover of the Jewish calendars received at the first sisterhood meeting. Follow the Philadelphia Times for Shabbat candle lighting times.

The Community School for Continuing Jewish Education an activity of the Jewish Federation of the Delaware Valley in cooperation with all area synagogues will begin classes at the Abrams Hebrew Academy, College Avenue Yardley on the evening of Tuesday October 27th, at 7:30.

Evening courses include seminars dealing with Bible, Jewish Law, Bio-Ethics, various levels of conversational Hebrew, Cycle of Jewish Life, Yiddish, Calligraphy, a teen discussion course, the life and writings of Moses Maimonides, Politics in Israel, Archeology and Calligraphy.