SARAH SEIDEL SISTERHOOD

May, 1982

Dear Congregants

I'm sitting here with blisters on my feet after walking 10 miles in the Long Island Soviet Jewry Walk-a-thon. (I have the certificate to prove it!) The walk took about 3 hours and was worth every inch. My friends in Russia would have been impressed by the hundreds of kids and adults from ages 3 to 103 who walked.... if they could only have seen. Those of you who sponsored me can send a check (made out to Soviet Jewry Walk-a-thon) to: Soviet Jewry Walk-a-thon, 41 Farm Lane, Great Neck, N.Y. 11020.

Also you might want to write to some Soviet Jews, here are some addresses, more will be sent to the synagogue.

Welcome Spring! Tulips and daffodils, trees budding, the planting of gardens are all within the thoughts of children and adults alike. Along with the beauty of this time of year comes the remembrance of Israeli independence some 32 years ago and the memorial day to the six million. Welcome beauty of today and memorial to the past.

The next meeting of the Sarah Seidel Sisterhood will be held at Temple B'Nai Abraham on Monday, May 10, 1982 at 8:00PM. There will be a board meeting in the sanctuary, preceeding the regular meeting, beginning at 7:15PM. We are delighted to have one of Bordentown's own, Dr. Louis Lapin, as the speaker for the evening. Dr. Lapin will present slides and discussion of his recent trip to the Soviet Union. Dr. Urken refers to Dr. Lapin as "...a great guy" and "...my favorite humorist". Please come and hear a world traveler, wonderful person and man about Bordentown. Refreshments will be presented by hostesses Rhea Goldman, Elaine Zeitz, and Theresa Getzel.

TODAH!! THANK YOU!!

On April 4th, the local Methodist Church study group, accompanied by their minister, visited our synagogue where a most interesting session on our Passover seder, etc. was discussed by Jay Trackman. Thank you, Jay for a valuable service.

Temple B'Nai Abraham held its Tricentennial Shabbat on April 16th. It was beautifully conducted by Jay Trackman and delicious cakes, baked by chairperson Joanne Lutz and Marsha Dowshen, and beverages were served at the Oneg Shabbat which followed. Thank you all.

The snagogue is setting up a prayerbook fund and is in the process of ordering twenty-four new prayerbooks and twenty-four new humash. People who donate to this fund may do so in honor of a person or occasion or in memory of someone. The cost of a prayerbook is $8.00 and the cost of a humash is $18.00. We are hoping that enough people will come forward with donations to cover the cost of all these books. Those people who donate will have a label in the prayerbook or humash with their own name and the name of the person or event they indicate. Please send all checks to Jon Singer at 9 Linden Avenue, Bordentown along with a paper indicating the number of books and the type you are donating and the person or event you are honoring or remembering.

A very speedy recovery to Jay Trackman.
