A reminder to all of you who have made reservations, that the Break-the-Fast Supper immediately follows the Evening Yom Kippur Service on Saturday at approximately 7:00 p.m.

On Friday, October 12, 1984, immediately following services, Randy Bloom cordially invited everyone back to her house at 33 Crosswicks Street for an oneg shabbat.

WAYS AND MEANS: On Saturday, December 1, 1984, at 8:00 p.m. The Congregation Brothers of Israel of Elberon, N.J. are sponsoring an Israeli Chassdic Song Festival at the Paramount Theatre, Asbury Park N.J. Ticket prices range from $9-15, however, if the Congregation purchases a minimum of 30 tickets, we will receive a rebate of $3 per ticket...a saving that we will pass on to you.

If enough members and their friends express an interest in attending, we will hire either a mini or regular size bus, depending on the number of respondents.

For those of you who are interested or just want more information about the evening, please contact Elaine Zeitz at 298-3356 no later than October 26, 1984...the sooner the better. Hope I hear from a lot of you. It sounds like a fun evening.

FAREWELL...WE'LL MISS YOU: A "reliable source" close to the White House has informed this reporter that the Singers of Linden Avenue are moving to Yardley at the end of October. Candy has assured me, however, that we will still see her at sisterhood meetings and that she still plans to do her hostessing stint. Whew!!!

SINCERE WISHES FOR A SPEEDY RECOVERY: Shelly Gale...you didn't need them anyway!!!

SARAH SEIDEL SISTERHOOD NEWS: The October meeting of Sarah Seidel Sisterhood will be held on Monday, October 8, 1984, at 8:00 p.m. A brief executive board meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the sanctuary. Board members, please try to attend.

Hostesses for the evening are: Florence Lapin, Renee Harrison, and Joanne Lutz.

The program for the evening will be presented by one of our own, Ida Reichlin, who will delight us with her memories of her recent Mediterranean trip.

A gentle reminder that dues for the 1984-85 year are now being accepted. Joanne Lutz, our treasurer, will be only too happy to take your check or your money in any exchangeable denomination or currency!

Theresa Getzel, our corresponding secretary, wants to remind all of you to let her know of any occasion of good or sorrow so that she may send a note from the sisterhood.

For those of you who were not at the September meeting please let our telephone committee chairperson, Charyl Morganstin, know when the best time is to contact you so that those members who have volunteered to be on the committee do not spend all day trying to reach you. If you can be reached at your place of business and do not mind be contacted there, please give her that number too.

Ida Reichlin is retiring from the embroidery business. She wants to know if anyone with embroidery know how would like to take over the job of sewing names on the synagogue table cloth for donor. Please let her know at the next meeting.

REMINDER: The November newsletter deadline is October 26, 1984. Also please let me know whenever you switch a hostessing job with anyone so that I can make note of that in my records and also in the newsletter. Many thanks.
