Temple B'Nai Abraham Sarah Seidel Sisterhood

February, 1985

TEMPLE B'NAI ABRAHAM NEWS

On February 22, 1985, we will remember the following people during Sabbath Services: Max Kessler, Yetta Gourovitch, Hyman and Ida Smullian.

On Friday, March 8th and Saturday, March 9th the Rabbi will be here to conduct services. Friday's service will be particularly special in that we are opening it to the community as part of our participation in Ecumenical Week. We hope to see you all there...and bring a friend. Hostesses for the evening are Joanne Lutz, Trudie Urken, Rhoda Kessler, Randye Bloom, and Faye Josephson.

Ways and Means: How does a guided walking tour of the Lower East Side on a beautiful spring day sound to you? For a very modest fee a guide from the United Jewish Council of the East Side, Inc. will take us on a tour of places we would not normally have an opportunity to see. And then of course onto lunch at one of the famous kosher restaurants in the area.

Are you interested? Then contact Elaine Zeitz at 298-3356. We need a minimum of 45 people to consider this a ways and means project.

School News: We welcome Lori Kessler and Matt Dowshen to our Sunday School staff. They will be assisting Jay in the instruction of our younger members.

A reminder that there will be no Sunday School on March 17th.

Teen News: On Saturday, February 2nd Rabbi Eric Lankin and some of our teens got together at the home of Phoebe and Jeff Nissim to watch a movie on religious cults called "A Ticket to Heaven." Following the movie an extremely interesting discussion ensued while everyone ate pizza.

Our plan is to continue to offer these kinds of programs to our teens as long as there is an interest in them. With this in mind there will be a meeting of all teens at the end of the month to discuss future programming. Details as to time and place will follow shortly either by mail or by telephone.

Sympathy: We all extend our deepest sympathy to Harvey Getzel and his family on the passing of his father.

We also extend our deepest sympathy to the Groveman family on the passing of Jennie. We will miss her.

Thank-You: In memory of Mervin Groveman, Joe Groveman has made a generous donation to our synagogue.

In memory of Jennie Groveman, Rhoda and Henry Kessler, Trudie and Jerry Urken have made donations to our synagogue.

We also gratefully acknowledge contributions made to our Temple Memorial Fund by:
