Our first Tot Shabbat of the year will be on September 30, 2005 from 6:00-7:30 We will begin the night with a pot luck dinner followed by an abbreviated, child friendly Shabbat service. The children will also hear a story about Rosh Hashanah and make a wind sock with Jewish stickers and designs to help celebrate the Jewish New Year. Adult Ed Program

This year Temple B'nai Abraham will continue our "Jewish Alive and American" thirty session introduction to living a committed Jewish life in the late twentieth century. JA&A offers opportunities for asking questions about ultimate meaning and mundane day-day reality. We will explore our relationship to Jewish life and envision the role Judaism can or does play in our lives. The class will meet twice a month, either on Saturday or Sunday afternoons for one hour each session (On Sunday we will meet between 1-2 PM and Saturday between 12:30-1:30 PM). The following dates have been tentatively selected: 9/24, 10/9, 10/23, 11/12, 11/20, 12/17, 1/8, 1/21, 2/4, 2/26, 3/18, 3/26, 4/22, 4/30 and 5/21. All those interested in learning about Judaism, its roots, its history and texts and the opportunities Judaism offers to live, learn, celebrate, pray and relate to life's challenges in a Jewish way, today, please contact Rabbi Alex Lazarus - 267-269-9154, rabbialex@bnai-abraham.org.

Website calendar

We will be updating our website this fall and making it more interactive. Our major change will be a calendar which will have the dates of all events at the synagogue. Our web site is bnai-abraham.org. This will be another resource for our members to get dates and times for upcoming events. Any changes to the temple calendar must be sent through our Board secretary, Eileen Gale. You can reach her at 291-0220 or egale10@netscape.com.

Break the Fast will be Thursday October 13th. All are invited to participate at the close of Yom Kippur services. The cost is $10.00 per adult, children 6-12, $5.00, with children under 5 free. You will be asked to provide a prepared covered dish and to help set up or clean up. Reservations must be made to attend. Please call Rita Nissim at 298-5357 by October 1st.

RELIGIOUS COMMITTEE

An updated YAHRZTEIT list is on the bulletin board. It is sorted by the deceased's last name. Please check it carefully. If you find any errors, or wish to add a name, please give me the information in WRITING. You can send an e-mail to "LEADSTAMP@AOL.COM". Please use "YAHRTZEIT LIST UPDATE" as the subject. I need the name of the deceased, the date of death, the relationship to you, and your name.

Cantor Avi Green will be back with us this year for the High Holidays. The Rabbi, Avi, and I are already working on the service plan.

If you do not desire an honor (an Aliyah, English reading, or Ark opening/closing), please remind me when you come into the service.

We seem to be missing some prayer books. Please check around your homes for any prayer books that you might have.

Thank you, Sid Morginstin

TEMPLE B'NAI ABRAHAM

Please let Robin Affrime know your feelings on the following:

Should Temple B'nai Abraham allow electronic music on Shabbat?

That's a question that the religious committee has been pondering for the past few months. There are people on both sides of this traditional coin. Some say that we already allow music, and therefore electronic music should be no different. It has even been brought up that it was allowed at a Bar Mitzvah in the recent past and our policy should therefore allow it. I would like to say that the situation is that simple but actually it is not. There are members of our congregation who would not be comfortable with electronic music being played during Shabbat. Reconstructionist synagogues differ in their approach to electronic music during services.

So for the time being the religious committee recommends that we do not allow this type of music during Shabbat, but instead plan some non-Shabbat occasions when we use and enjoy this type of musical program.

If you have an opinion you would like to share or discuss please contact me at 609-499-1761.

Social Action

As we begin the new Jewish year, it is essential to keep in mind how we as a community can help others and contribute to our wider community. It has been very rewarding to work together on local projects and we hope to continue our efforts. Below I list some ideas for our temple, Sisterhood and Hebrew School to consider, based on discussions with our members and students over the past several months.

1) We plan to continue to distribute food for HomeFront once a month with the older Hebrew School students. This project coordinates with the Crosswicks Methodist Church and a Unitarian congregation in the area.

2) Continue to collect food or other items at the temple for donation to area service distributions such as the food bank at St. Mary's Church.

3) Contribute to the Trenton Area Soup Kitchen. There are two projects that seem doable and constructive for our small congregation:

a. Prepare and deliver bagged lunches for kids to be given out at the soup kitchen -- the Hebrew School kids could help with this. We would buy or have members donate bread, peanut butter, jam, fruit, cookies, and designate a particular Hebrew School session to making the lunches. I suggest donating lunches once or twice a year.

b. During school holidays (Columbus Day, etc.), the soup kitchen has an open art activity room for kids. They welcome other kids and adults to come supervise art projects from 11:00 to 1:00, any day the Trenton schools are also closed for a holiday. We could donate art supplies, purchased with some of our funds, and bring any interested Hebrew School children to participate. (There is no age limit for the kids for this activity; to serve food there the kids have to be at least 13.) I would need a couple of adult volunteers and drivers to help with this. I would suggest we try doing this once in the fall, once in the winter or spring.

4) Contribute funds to meal preparation for HomeFront (perhaps cover one month's food delivery).

Funds for any of these projects could come from the money raised at the last Purim carnival, or from future fund raisers for social action.

People power is just as important as money, however, to make a difference in others' lives! Please let me know how you would like to help (324-0571).

I welcome any other ideas and suggestions for social action.

With all good wishes for a GIVING year ahead!

SARAH SEIDEL SISTERHOOD

CALLING ALL WOMEN

1. Do you desire to foster a sense of communal responsibility?
2. Want to sponsor and encourage youth activities?
3. Aspire to engage in civic and philanthropic activities?
4. Care to stress ethical and religious practices in everyday living?
5. Desire to promote the welfare of our congregation and religious school?
6. Wish to participate in educational and cultural programs while developing social relationships with like minded women?

If you answered yes to one or more of these questions, then Sarah Seidel Sisterhood is for you! We have an exciting year of activities, events and fundraisers planned for this year. Join us at our first meeting on SEPTEMBER 12th, 7:30 pm at the Temple. Dress casually because we will be making Honey Pots to sell at our first fundraiser - Jewish Cooking! (If you have fabric, pinking shears, please bring them.)

Dues to join Sisterhood are $25.00 per year. The relationships you form and the contributions you will make to the congregation and community - Priceless!

FROM OUR SISTERHOOD CO-PRESIDENTS

We are honored, excited, and a bit overwhelmed by the appointment as Sisterhood Co-Presidents. We have been working very well together to gain a deeper understanding of the essence of Sisterhood and the importance of this organization's role in our synagogue and our community. We have been received with warmth, welcome and generosity as we acclimate to our new positions. Our goals are to develop female relationships by providing stimulating and fun programs, to contribute to the expansion and enhancement of our synagogue through financial and service contributions, to aid in improving the lives of women, children and families across all generations and religious affiliations, and to connect with the community at large.

In addition to the established services that sisterhood already provides such as the newsletter, oneg, joy and sorrow cards, Shiva services, telephone notification chain, and Bar/Bat Mitzvah gifts, we have developed a varied program of events throughout the year. We have created five fundraisers (the first, scheduled on 9/22, is an adult/child Jewish cooking class and Pot O' Honey sale for the holidays - see Calendar) as well as three community outreach events in addition to our standard blood drive. (Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure is the first of these events scheduled on October 16th, 2005)

We would like to thank all committee chair persons and members who have graciously agreed to continue on in their positions - some held for many, many years now! We congratulate and welcome all new and returning members of the Temple Board and Committees. We look forward to working together with them to improve our temple, enhance our community and connect with the community at large.

JUST A SNIFF...

Parent/Child Jewish Cooking Experience - Thursday, September 22 at Temple, 7:30 pm (All are welcome - single adults, couples, etc)

For a $25.00 donation you can join the fun, support the congregation and learn how to create (and eat) yummy food - just in time for the holidays! Note: Any Hebrew students who will remain to participate with parents will be fed pizza and salad prior to the event.

Cat's Meow Collectors plaque

Sarah Seidel Sisterhood has available the Cat's Meow Collectors plaque of our Temple for sale at $10.00. The plaques are imprinted on the back with the date of our establishment, and signed by the artist. These plaques were sold at The U and I Book Store for many years. Contact Eileen Gale at 291-0220 for your plaque. They will be available at the first Sisterhood meeting and the Sisterhood fund raiser on September 22.

Elaine Zeitz Building Fund

To honor the memory of Elaine Zeitz, who has performed countless acts and filled so many vital roles for our synagogue, the Temple Board has voted to establish an Elaine Zeitz Building Fund. Any donations received will go into that fund and will be used towards a new addition, a new building, or a major renovation to our synagogue. One of my long-term goals as President is to explore how we can expand our facility and membership. It is very difficult to stay the same size without stagnating and facing the loss of members. If we do not grow to some extent, we may not survive into the long term future. Our building is historic but is also old and is in need of some major updates. We are limited by the size of our building to grow our membership. Elaine was always practical and would appreciate that we would be honoring her in a manner that would ensure our continued viability. Thus, rather than purchase merely an item in her memory or purchase a plaque, the Board has decided to make a much grander gesture, which will move us towards a successful future, by starting a building fund in her memory. We hope that this will give us a good start towards this goal.

Betsy Ramos

TEMPLE B'NAI ABRAHAM

Honoring Elaine Zeitz

The following is an excerpt of the very moving obituary written by Carl Zeitz, the husband of Elaine Zeitz, who died on August 21, 2005. Since Elaine has been our friend, supporter, and a temple leader for so many years, we thought we would print this obituary for everyone to read:

"If I think of Elaine, I think of that song sung by Helen Reddy. 'I am woman, hear me roar.' Well, Elaine roared and made a mark in this world by doing good for people in every way she could. She believed in women and the strength of women together. She was proud to be all the things a modern woman can be: a mother, a strong supportive wife, a career person, the maker of a beautiful home and a giver to every community she encountered through her volunteer work in at least a half dozen community, civic, religious and social service agencies and organizations," said her husband.

A member of Temple B'Nai Abraham of Bordentown for 30 years, which she served as its first woman president and as a long-time board member, she was a 30-year member of the congregation's Sarah Seidel Sisterhood, which she served as treasurer at her death and of which she was a past president. In Bordentown she was also a member of the Tricentennial Celebration Committee in 1982 and was a program director and a past president of the Bordentown Community Concerts Association that she helped to found in 1982, which this year completed its twenty-fourth year of bringing quality performing artists to the Bordentown community. For many years as well, she volunteered her professional services to conduct parenting courses for parents in the Bordentown Regional School District.

Growing out of conversations she had at the old YWCA in Trenton with Evelyn Gill, then a Y employee she met when she took her sons there for swimming lessons, Mrs. Zeitz helped Mrs. Gill conceive and develop the Lawrenceville-based organization named PEI Kids, a social service agency founded to provide child abuse prevention education and intervention for victims of child abuse in Mercer and Burlington Counties. She served on the board of PEI Kids virtually from its founding until her death and initiated and helped oversee the annual PEI Kids dinner and silent auction, an event that has grown from one that raised but a few thousand dollars each year to one that generated over $60,000 this year.

From 1998 to the end of 2004 she served also as a member of the Board of the Union Industrial Home, a venerable social service agency in the City of Trenton that assists the community's teenagers and young adults with a focus on unwed mothers and programs in parenting for unwed fathers, notably Operation Fatherhood. UIH too derived great benefits from her ability to envision and organize successful fundraising events including what became an annual UIH evening at McCarter Theater. At UIH she served variously as Chair of the Fund Development and Advocacy Committee, on the personnel committee and as board secretary.

A graduate of Wheaton College, Norton, Mass., Mrs. Zeitz served as class of 1968 fund agent and as Reunion Gift Chair for the class's 35th Reunion, as well as volunteering in a wide range of other capacities in the Wheaton's annual and other gift campaigns. She was an active member for more than 20 years of the Wheaton Club of Princeton, participating in all its events designed to maintain strong ties with the college, and heartily approved of the decision by Wheaton nearly 20 years ago to become a coed institution, leaving behind its proud tradition as a women's college.

Elaine Zeitz was born in Philadelphia on Oct. 15, 1946 to the late Jack Bagan of Marlton, N.J. and Bea Bagan of Marlton, N.J., who survives her. She grew up in Salem, N.J., attended public schools there and graduated from Salem High School in 1964, enrolling at Wheaton that September. She received her B.A. from Wheaton with a major in philosophy and attended the Simmons College of Social Work for one year before transferring after her marriage to the Wurzweiler School of Social Work of Yeshiva University in New York City, from which she received a Masters Of Social Work degree in 1970. On moving to the Trenton area in 1970 she became employed until approximately 1981 as a clinical social worker at Catholic Charities in Trenton. In 1982 she founded her long-time, successful practice.

Besides her husband, mother, sons and daughter-in-law, she is survived by her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. Stanley Bagan and Sally Bagan of Bridgeton New Jersey, and by her sister-in-law and brother-in-law Deede and Larry Snowwhite, of Reston, Va. and by four nephews, many cousins and many loving friends.
